To: Chief Ridenhour,

This August was one our busiest ever, we ended the month with several events including the Party on the Patio, San Gennaro Festival, Danbury Public School Convocation, and the CT United Ride.

Cadets also continued their weekly training and preparation for upcoming events, such as their annual car show.

Labor day weekend started a busy September schedule. Saturday, September 5th we assisted with the Brazilian Festival, Sunday, September 6th we held the Annual Car and Truck Festival, and Monday, September 7th we assisted with the Newtown Labor Day Parade.

The 9-11 25th Memorial Ceremony began another busy weekend. We had a Color Guard at the ceremony and also Cadets assisting with traffic control. We then took down the flags that were put out for the Ceremony and ended the day at the Bethlehem Fair to assist with parking duties. We stayed the weekend at the Bethlehem fair.

The weekend of September 18th-20th the Cadets assisted at the Berlin Fair, Vinny Strong Fundraiser, POW-MIA Day Flag Detail, and the Newtown Arts Festival.

I'm not sure why they are comparing hands, maybe it is some type of game to determine who gets the choice assignment?
